Because we believed the Cubans were right we declared that Spain had no right to hold them in subjugation, and we asked the President to intervene. The President notified Spain that she must relinquish her authority over the Cubans, because the Cubans were and of right ought to be free and independent, and the entire nation without regard to party responding to the President's call marched forth to make good the declaration of the nation. Yet that war for humanity has been turned into a war for conquest, and this nation, that started out to help the Cubans get their liberty, now declares that we shall deprive the Filipinos in the exercise of the same right that we went to war to give to Cuba. BRYAN'S TOUR OF KANSAS. a very dramatic incident, the first of a series | UNIT RULE TO BEAT COLER. that ended only when Beatrice was reached.

At the station at Topeka the night before there was a tremendous crush and a gang of pickpockets secured much loot. Some of them even sought to reach Mr. Bryan in the crowd, but succeeded only in robbing one of the correspondents who constituted his bodyguard. About fourteen of these thieves followed on the next train. This caught up with Mr. Bryan at Marysville, and took him on board. Meanwhile the train crew had spotted the men in the smoker, and due warning was given.

When Barneston was reched all of these pickpockets, who were wearing Bryan badg s, leaped off the train, hurrabing for him, and mingled with the crowd. As Mr. Bryan was speaking he saw three of these men in the act of robbing a man in the crowd. Stopping abruptly, he called out.

"See those this way, that're robbing that man.

See those thieves; they're robbing that man.

abruptly, he called out:

"See those thieves; they're robbing that man. There, there."

He was pointing directly at the p'ckpockets. Before the startled crowd could act the thieves took to their heels. The crowd broke up in excited pursuit and ran the men around the train, where they took refuge in the smoker. Then the train pulled out.

Mr. Bryan pointed out to the Sheriff who was on board, the man whom he saw with his hand in the auditor's pocket. The Sheriff started the man for the baggage car at the point of his revolver. When crossing the open platform the thief leaved from the train which was going forty miles an hour. He was seen to pick himself up painfully, but when the train backed up he had disappeared. Five minutes later another of the gang made a rush for the platform, and train. The Sheriff had seen him start and was in close pursuit, revolver in hand, but just then the train rounded a curve and he could not get a shot at him.

The other members of the geng were locked in the car and compelled to buy tickets to Lincoln, where they escaped the officers awaiting them.

This courty was one of those numbered in the old First district when Mr. Bryan was first elected to Congress. His address was over an hour in length, and covered the same range of topics as his other speeches.

NOT AFRAID OF IMPERIALISM.

One of the Foremost German-Americans in Indianapolts Goes Over to McKinley,

Indianapolis, Aug. 24.—Albert Lieber, head of the Indianapolis Breweries, and for many years one of the most influential German Democrats in Indiana, to-day declared that he would support President McKinley. In an interview

"In the first place I am not afraid of imperialism. I think it is ridiculous to even debate that proposition. I know something of empires and monarchical governments, and I want to say that if there were even the slightest chance of an empire being established in this country I would be one of the first to rebel, o shoot, if necessary. If there really were any such prospect there would be secret meetings at all hours of these balmy nights and people would be arming themselves. But there s nothing in such talk. Imperialism is a myth and the Democratic party will have to back down on the 'paramount issue' proposition.

"Looking at the situation from a business standpoint, McKinley has opened new markets for this country in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. I believe this nation to be as intelligent as any other first class nation, and able to govern any new territory that may of the people. I believe there is no doubt, so far as business is concerned, that if McKinlev is reflected there will be no business commotion; whereas if Bryan is elected every business man will stop to see what he is going to do, thus bringing about a temporary standstill, which means much.

"Bryan's financial views are the same as four years ago, and he would try to have them enacted into law should he be elected. The only irrency, imperialism and a large standing through the free in the country, when only a few years ago they occupied to other side of each question? I believe the armount issue in this campaign is that of aperialism because the policy of this Administration of the standard properties of the s that he would bow to the general wishes of the party in the State, most of the Brooklyn managers were cocksure that there was only one man in the race, and that his name was Timothy L. Woodruff. There was a natural disappointment, therefore, over the altered condition of affairs and much sympathy was expressed for the Lieutenant-Governor in his second grave political disappointment within a few months. This feeling, however, did not partake of any hostility to Mr. Odell, who, next to Mr. Woodruff, would probably be the first choice of the Brooklyn leaders. There is apparently a lingering hope on the part of some of them that, there imperialism because the policy of this Administration, which gives rise to the issency tolates the letter and spirit of the Declaration of Independence and is opposed to the fundamental principles of our Republic. The Republican party in its foreign policy stands for a government outside of the Constitution. We stand for a policy in which the Constitution follows the flag. We believe in a government with the consent of the governed.

When the special train pulled into Marysville the booming of cannon announced its arrival. Several thousand people had assembled at the station.

COUNTY DELEGATES MUST VOTE ALL ONE WAY.

McCarren Announces Decision of Anti-Hill Leaders-Murphy Discovers That Coler Is Only a Stalking Horse for McGuire-William

F. Sheehan Camping on Mack's Trail. There were two interesting developments vesterday in the Democratic factional row which is ripping the State organization to pieces. One of them was the announcement that the unit rule was to be applied to the Kings county delegation. Senator Patrick Henry McCarren of Brooklyn, who is one of the anti-Hill-Coler mbine, went to the Croker-Murphy-Shevlin headquarters in the Hoffman House in the afternoon and had a long talk with Mr. Croker and ex-Senator Murphy. When he was asked afterwards what the news was, he replied that there was very little. He said that all of his friends and acquaintances were confident of victory. Then Mr. McCarren was asked how many delegates Mr. Coler could hope to capture in Kings county if he and his friends made a determined fight, and how many delegates he could hope to have in the State Convention. Mr. McCarren replied that Mr. Coler would have none or all of the sixty-three delegates from Kings county. He said that the unit rule would be applied to the delegation and unit on one side or the other of every question. Whoever gets a majority of the delegates delegation will not be split up, but as usual it will meet, adopt the unit rule, and that will be the end of it. Kings county will not fritter away its strength, but it will be solidly for or against every proposition that is advanced." Mr. McCarren was asked whether the new Primary law would permit the adoption of the unit rule by county delegations. He replied that it would, and when the same question was put to ex-Senator Murphy, Mr. Murphy said that in the State Convention which elected delegates to the National Convention the unit

ule was adopted and adhered to. Mr. Coler's friends, it was declared vesterday, have never expected to get more than fteen or eighteen, at the most, of the Kings county delegates. If the unit rule is to be adopted by the delegation this number of delegates will be powerless, because its votes will be cast by its chairman regardless of the pers sonal wishes of its members. Mr. Coler's friends have depended for their strength in troller's personal popularity, their belief being that no man elected a delegate to the against the Comptroller on any proposition, for fear that his act might ruin him in politics. day, for delegates to protest that they were friendly to Mr. Coler, but that party usage required them to submit to the unit rule. triends of Mr. Croker think that by the adop-tion of the unit rule they will be able to nail any hopes of Kings county support which Mr. Hill and Mr. Coler have had.

The other interesting development was the discovery by Mr. Murphy that ex-Senator fill was in reality working for the nomination of Mayor James K. McGuire of Syracuse for Governor, and that the use of Comptroller McGuire movement, Mr. Murphy said that he had received letters from up the State saying that Supt. Maher of the Department of Public Works in Syractuse was canvassing cities in the western end of the State and spending a great deal of money to elect Mctivire delegates. Mr. Murphy's information was that Mr. Maher had informed a great many persons that Mr. McGuire was the real candidate. Mr. Murphy said that he had known all along that Mr. Hill really wanted to have Mr. McGuire nominated and was using Mr. Coler simply as a cloak to conceal his real purpose.

acted into law should he be elected. The only way to absolutely settle the money question is to reelect McKinley. I think that before the campaign is over the Democratic party will try to force the money question to an issue. In fact, I think it is the only issue they will have."

Nothing New. He Says, After Conferring With the Democratic Leader.

James Shevlin, accompanied by Andrew

McLean, editor of the Brooklyn Citizen, went vesterday morning on a visit to Hugh McLaughlin at South Jamesport, L. I. The conference which lasted a couple of hours, was understood to have special reference to the Hill-Croker-Coler imbroglio. On his return to Brooklyn in the afternoon Mr. Shevlin said that he had been merely paying a friendly visit to Mr. McLaughlin and that there was no change in the Gubernatorial situation. He was greatly gratified, he said, to find Mr. McLaughlin in fine health and spirits. It is well known in political circles in Brooklyn that Mr. Shevlin has long enjoyed the implicit confidence of the aged leader, but no one believes that he could have assumed such a pronounced hostile attitude both toward Hill cand Coler without the direct sanction of Mr. McLaughlin. As far back as three weeks ago in Mr. McLaughlin. As far back as three weeks ago in Mr. McLaughlin spoke to his friends in severe criticism of some of Mr. Coler's political movements and threw cold water on his Gubernatorial assirations. The announcement of Mr. Shevlin that there is "no change in the situation" indicates that his views on the Comptroller remain the same. If this condition of affairs continues until the meeting of the convention Mr. Coler, it is confidently declared, cannot possibly gather in more than six of the sixty-three votes from Kings county.

PRIMARY FRAUDS IN KINGS. Wholesale Illegal Enrollment Is Alleged in the

Councilman William A. Doyle, the regular eader of the Democratic forces in the Seventh Assembly district in Brooklyn, has unearthed an alleged fraudulent scheme, resembling the old McKane tactics in Gravesend, to defeat him at the primaries next Tuesday. He avers that between 200 and 300 names have been fraudulently placed on the primary rolle of the district, which comprises the Eighth, Thirtieth and Thirty-first Wards, the latter comprising the Gravesend territory. Most of the names are those of genuine voters in the borough of Manhattan, who were falsely represented to as were passed out to them. nave moved to new homes in Councilman Doyle's district. Other names, it is alleged, are of men who are dead or in prison, or have no existence. There is no suspicion that the custodians of the primary records were in any way involved in the conspiracy. They were simply the innocent instruments of the men who planned the fraud. Most of the affidavits on which the transfers were made were sworn before Thomas F. Wogan, Gowanus hotel keeper, as Commissioner of Deeds. Wogan has been one of the most active managers in the movement to oust Councilman Doyle from the leadership of the district. The name of Assistant Corporation Counsel Luke D. Stapleton, who has also been prominent in the fight against Doyle, does not figure in the revelations. Yesterday affidavits were pre-pared in the cases of sixty-two alleged bogus transfers, and Lawyer Charles H. Hyde, on bealf of Councilman Doyle, made application to upreme Court Justice Mattice for an alternasupreme Court Justice Mattice for an atterna-tive writ of mandamus to have these names stricken from the primary rolls. Justice Mat-cine granted the application and made it re-surnable this morning. Similar action will be aken on all the other bogus transfers as soon as the necessary afflowits are completed. Councilman Doyle had this to say about the discovery.

"I first put five men to copying the records. Then I sent men to the Brooklyn addresses that I thought open to suspicion. They found that no such parties resided at these addresses. I had the Manhattan borough addresses investigated next, and we learned from the men themselves that they knew nothing about being transferred to Brooklyn. They were amazed when told that they were on the Brooklyn primary rolls. In a few cases the names were those of men who had died recently. In other cases the occupants of the houses in Manhattan borough were in the country. One man whose transfer affidayit is on file is in prison, where he was sent for four years on June 15 of the present year.

The matter, it is said, is almost certain to result in an inquiry by the Grand Jury. The discoveries may have a depressing effect on Senator Coffey's fight with the Willoughby Street managers as the Seventh Assembly district is included in his Senatorial district. Chief Clerk John K. Neal of the Election Department said that owing to the defects in the primary election law, such frauds, as charged, can be committed with impunity.

lay B. Boyle for the Tammany leadership in the Seventh district had a rally last night in Abingdon Square. The Keahonites had planned to use the bandstand in the square for the speakers and the band. Four big calcium lights were to illuminate the stand. A squad of policemen occupied the stand and told the Keahonites they could not enter because they had no permit. The Keahonites had been trying in vain to get a permit for four days, they said last night, and they accused Mr. Boyle of hatching a plot to keep them off the stand. This piot was keeping Park Commissioner Clausen where the Keahonites couldn't find him. When they asked Secretary Holly for a permit Mr. Holly, they said, shook his head and referred them to Mr. Clausen.

Just before night the captain of the Charles street station sent word to Mr. Keahon that he was very sorry, but orders had come from Police Headquarters to fill the stand with the city by Devery. The first speaker, James E. Duress, a lawyer, took pains to show that Mr. Boyle was responsible for the assemblage being without shelter. "Through the actions of Mr. Boyle," he said, "we are prevented from occupying the stand here to ratify the nominees of our party, Bryan and Stevenson. This disposes, my friends, of the claim made by Mr. Boyle that he is a Democrat. Is there a man here who can remember when that stand has been refused for occasions like this? Mr. Keahon can summon the citizens of this district, but he cannot control the weather or the petty malice of Mr. Boyle. We are here as Democrats who love the national party and Tammany Hall, and we're here to elect a leader who will increase a Democratic majority. The ticket headed by Patrick H. Gas water-heaters are made, capable of being attached to the ordinary boller, and which will heat 30 to 40 gallons of water at a cost of 3 or 4 cents. "Oh, yes," some one will say, "but we all know how servants will let the gas go on burning after the water is heated." Even this objection is met, however, by the invention of the thermostat, which automatically turns down the gas as soon as the water is hot, and turns it on again when 10 or 15 gallons of water have been drawn off and more heating is required. This meets the case of the careless servant exactly. In fact, gas appliances for household use are now so perfected, or so speedily will be perfected, that every objection which the most cartious can bring for ward falls to the ground.—Adv.

There was no particular name given Sheehan's mass meeting. It might have been called a Coler rally, or a Bryan ratification, or an anti-Croker demonstration, or a meeting of Devery haters. The crowd was enthusiastic all the time, but it seemed to like the "anti" part of the meeting better than anything else. "But never mind Devery's English. I want to call your attention to one fact. Within the last few days a learnul blow has been struck at the integrity of our institutions through the lawlessness among the wintes and negroes in this district. The wretched Devery organized those riots. How is it that hree and a half millions of people in this city live in peace? They do it mainly from force of habit. That miserable Devery has been experimenting with that habit of peaceful living. He was the father, the author, the creator of that race riot. He has enabled the disorderly to place this city in danger of bloodshed and conflagration. Why this opposition? Is not Coler the almost universal choice of the rank and file of the Democratic party, not only throughout the city, but throughout the State?

"Why should Croker and Shevlin and their cohorts be opposed to Coler? The opposition to him is his strongest certificate of character. He is the people's choice, and the will of the people in the Democratic party at least is the supreme law of the land. Support for Mr. Sheehan is support for Coler. If Sheehan wins it will help Coler to win. If Coler wins, the people win. The nomination of Coler means the election of Bryan, because Bryan and Coler upon the Democratic ticket in the State of New York will prove invincible."

Belief That the Croker-Murphy Faction will get the County's Three Delegates.

Amsteidam, N. Y., Aug. 24.—The result of the Democratic ward primaries in this city to hight indicates that the Montgomery county convention will be controlled by the Croker-Murphy wing of the party. Judge Henry V. Borst, the State Committeeman from this district, was expected to put up a fight in the interest of Hill, but during his absence from the edit days in which to make arrangements for the context. So the Croker-Murphy dation elected all the forty-three delegates to the county convention from this city. It is believed that the context. So the Croker-Murphy dation elected all the forty-three delegates to the county convention from this city. It is believed that the context. So the Croker-Murphy action elected all the Montgomery County Convention has spring in Hill's interest.

PLAIN WORDS FOR PETTIGREW.

A. R. Member Brings Out a Sharp Rebuke. WATERTOWN, S. D., Aug. 24.-Senator Pettigrew has opened a personal letter campaign in this State. He addressed one of his letters to G. E. Bartlett, a pioneer of this county and a G. A. R. man who has been a Republican all his life. Mr. Bartlett's reply to Senator Pettigrew is in part as follows: "I expect to take a very active interest in but it will not be in the interest of Pettigrew and the Bryan party. You have said you were ashamed of your country and its flag and it may as well be understood at the outset of this communication that I put in some of the past years of my life in the Civil War fighting men of that same persuasion, You say you are a candidate for reelection, and I say I hope you will be defeated, and I shall do all in my power to bring about that result. The sentiment of the farmers and business men of this locality is overwhelmingly opposed to you and your methods. Permit me to inquire whether there is to be more money sent into the State by the Republican party than you are to spend from the funds contributed from the insurgents under Aguinaldo and from the silver trust, whose interest you have so ably championed. "You ask for the active assistance of your 'friends' to overcome the efforts of the Republicans to defeat you., Your friends are mostly in the Island of Luzon, and one of my sons is now suffering from the tortures of a mauser builet sent into his chest by one of them. Your boasted friends are the enemies of our country and are thriving on the encouragement and support derived from you as Senator from South Dakota. I had two sons in the Phillippine rebellion and your political consort, Judge Moore, prayed that the God of battles would strengthen the arm of their opponents that they might drive these sons and their comrades into the sea; this sentiment you have countenanced and encouraged by your every public act, and it is because of your having thus countenanced and encouraged such treason that the rebellion in the Philippines still hangson. Your party rewards men like Judge Moore for giving utterance to such thoughts by nominating them for Congress.

"It is unnecessary for me to state that I am opposed to you. Fanaticism and frenzy have had their run in South Dakota, and I predict and confidently hope you will discover it before the next Legislature convenes." Luzon, and one of my sons is now Unexploded Shell on the Beach. SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 24 -An unexploded shell of the Hotchkiss rapid-fire type was recently picked up on the beach here by Frederick Havens, one of the surfmen at the bathing station. The shell weighed one pound and was found to be intact, aithough the powder in it had been taken out. In it was a portion of a business card on which was written on one side, "Cruiser Mercedes, towed into harbor," and on the other side, "C. A. Morrissette." SCHIEREN FOR LIEUT.-GOV.

GEN. GREENE SUGGESTS A RUNNING MATE FOR ODELL.

sevelt Comes to Town and Expresses Admiration for His Probable Successor-May Nominate Odell if It Is Proper for a Vice-Presidential Candidate to Do So.

Gov. Roosevelt came up yesterday from Oyster Bay to see his political friends and advisers. One of the first things that he did was to announce that he was an Odell man from start to finish. Speaking of Mr. Odell and his probable nomination by the Republican State Convention, Gov. Roosevelt had this to say:

"I know that Mr. Odell has been sincerely anxious not to be nominated, but the feeling of the Republicans throughout the State has become absolutely unmistakable. They want Mr. Odell, and Mr. Odell must yield to their desire. I do not believe that there will be any candidate mentioned against him. Of course, I am heartily for him. He has been very close carrying the State of South Dakota this year, to me during the past two years, and my liking and respect for him have increased steadily. He will be nomi-nated and elected and he will make an excel-have increased steadily. He will be nominated and elected and he will make an excelent Governor. He will represent the whole Kepublican party when a party question arises, and as Governor he will represent the whole State regardless of party. Now I've told you what the machine thinks, and Senator Gibbs will tell you what the independents, "said ex-Senator Gibbs, when the Governor speaks for the machine."

"There are no Independents," said ex-Senator Gibbs, when the Governor speaks for the machine.

Gov. Roosevelt called on Gen. Francis V. Greene at the County Committee headquarters and had a long talk with him. When he had gone away Gen. Greene was asked what he thought of Mr. Odell's candidacy, and who his candidate for Lieutenant-Governor was.

"Of course I'm for Odell," said Gen. Greene.
"You can't make that too strong; and what would be the matter with Odell and Schleren?"

Gen. Greene added that he thought ex-Mayor Schleren would be the best man who could be put on the State ticket as Mr. Odell's running mate. It was pointed out to him that Mr. Schleren had declared that he would not accept the nomination. Gen. Greene smiled when this was said and replied; "Well, pressure must be brought to bear upon him."

Gov. Roosevelt said that it had not been decided whether he should place Mr. Odell in nomination or not. He said that he would be very glad to do this and show that Mr. Odell's nomination was what he wanted, but that there was some question whether a candidate for Vice-President should take such a part in the convention.

LIVING PICTURES IN POLITICS.

Wheat Garnering and Factories in Operation and Other Things to Be Shown.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Congressman Lorimer's circus tent scheme, with olio attachment to amuse the voters between doses of political pabulum, has finally broken into national politics and "the greatest show on earth," such as edified outlying regions of Cook county during the campaign of 1898, will tour the country this year from Hell Gate to the Golden country this year from Hell Gate to the Golden Gate. Arrangements have been made to secure a machine that can turn out huge moving pictures 32 by 28 feet in size, and with the aid of this immense instrument the participants in this festival of Republican prosperity will be able to see wheat fflelds, in harvest time, busy factories in operation, ships carrying the products of the country across the oceans, and divers other illustrations of prosperity.

These living pictures will be sandwiched in between the orations of the politicians, while the whole show is expected to wind up with a grand display of fireworks, in which the golden tree of prosperity will play the title role.
